Brian Asher / SCDC:

Brian came tonight to give the yearly update. 2018 has been eventful, we have had POET, United Scrape Metal, Coffey Creek Storage Industrial, NIPPON, and Ryobi continues to expand in the old Meridian Building. The purchase of the Presbyterian Church was finalized today. We are still working on Ranger Power in Morristown. Asher advised they are working on the water along Tom Hession Drive which will help the development along there and we celebrated our 30-year anniversary with our Sister City this year. Titus and the Council wanted to thank Asher for all his hard work. This was information only; no action was needed.

Circuit Court / Employee Replacement:

Tony Titus advised that Circuit Court has an employee that will be retiring in February and they are requesting permission to replace this employee. Motion to approve the job posting and hiring was made by Asher, seconded by Langkabel, approved 6-0

Council / Amended Resolution:

The Council was presented an amendment to Resolution 2018-06. The amendment added the bond terms. There is one question, Exhibit A was not attached to the resolution, a motion to approve Resolution 2018-07 pending the review of Exhibit A by Jody Butts was made by Claxton, seconded by Asher, approved 6-0

Auditor / Employee Replacement:

The County Auditor is requesting to replace two part-time employees. We have had one part-time person quit on December 10, 2018 and the other part-time employee is moving into the full-time Transfer Deputy because Alice Brown is retiring on January 1. Motion to approve the posting and hiring of two part-time employees was made by Claxton, seconded by Langkabel, approved 6-0
