COUNTY ASSESSOR:

The County Assessor presented the Council with a Resolution to be voted on next month for her office to up her petty cash from $25.00 to 100.00, she explained with the new fees going into place for the Sales Disclosures they will need to be able to provide change. There was no action take, this was information only for next month’s meeting.

She also advised they are going to delay the mailing of the Form 11’s for two weeks, hopefully this will keep the public traffic out of the building. This was information only. No action was needed

COUNTY TREASURER:

The County Treasurer presented to the council that she would like to be able to purchase a drop box for tax bill payments. With the restrictions in place for the buildings, this would give the public a place to put their payments. She advised she would be able to get one for under a $1,000.00. but wants to get good one. Titus asked her to look into this and figure out the cost and bring it back to them next month. No action was taken tonight.

There being no further business a motion to adjourn was made by Smith, seconded by Caldwell approved 7-0
